Storybook garden setting provides a serene backdrop to this 4-bedroom beauty. Living area windows bring the outdoors in with a scenic panoramic view of the garden, including bridges, a stone gazebo, and trees a variety of birds call home. Two primary bedrooms (one on each floor) provide options for in-law or guest space. Updates include hardwood floors ('14), remodeled kitchen, bathrooms ('14), and shower doors ('14), low-e windows ('14), Rheem water heater ('21), paved driveway ('22), and electric subpanel ('14) and more.

The interior modern features balance the exterior tranquil touches that weave through the property, including live oak trees, stepping stone paths, even a remnant of a once spring-fed pool. The backyard flagstone patio and fire pit, garden room, and sculptures dotting the landscape complete this truly unique home.
